

 Prefabricated and modular buildings Supporting housing supply and affordability Guidance to improve productivity and harmonisation; product certification.	 Condensation mitigation Structural safety, sustainability, amenity and public health Reducing degradation and mould growth caused by condensation in buildings in tropical and sub-tropical climates to improve health and safety.	 Waterproofing and water shedding Structural safety and amenity Review and develop fit-for-purpose NCC provisions – addressing one of the most prominent forms of building defects and improve health and safety.	 Plumbing and water efficiency Sustainability and public health Fit-for-purpose NCC provisions for pipe sizing and water efficiency to improve environmental outcomes.	 Net zero buildings and energy efficiency Sustainability, amenity and health Improvement in energy efficiency to achieve net zero for new buildings and investigate a minimum standard for embodied carbon emissions of building products.
 Building resilience Structural safety, fire safety, sustainability and public health Review of current provisions to ensure NCC-compliant buildings are resilient to extreme weather caused by climate change.	 Secondary priority projects Compliance, safety and public health Supporting compliance with clearer compliance options (evidence of suitability); updating the ABCB private bushfire shelters standard and improving weatherproofing of external envelopes (all pending resource availability).	 Drafting and publication NCC development and production processes NCC Development process including online publication and digital access to the NCC.	 Standards and reference documents Using contemporary standards Reviewing and referencing appropriate standards so the NCC is contemporary and fit for purpose.	 Consultation and economic analysis Industry and citizen engagement Consultation and engagement with stakeholders including review of proposed changes from industry and citizens (PFCs), seeking public comment, and economic analysis of proposed changes.
 Educator tools Foundation NCC education Helping educators in the tertiary and CPD sectors to teach the NCC to existing and future practitioners.	 Handbooks, guidance and calculators Enabling understanding and compliance Helping practitioners to better understand and competently apply the NCC with calculators, tools and comprehensive guidance and web content.	 WaterMark – product certification WaterMark Ongoing management of WaterMark plumbing product certification scheme including the transition to lead free plumbing products. Most costs are offset by revenue.	 Board and Committee secretariat Government and industry collaboration Providing secretariat support to the Board and Technical committees to facilitation collaboration and participation in our work.	 Customer relations Industry and citizen engagement Engaging with industry and citizens to respond to questions about the NCC, WaterMark, CodeMark and the ABCB.
 Communications Awareness and engagement Raising awareness through communication and marketing; including campaigns, advertising and practitioner engagement.	 Events and videos Openness and understanding Raising awareness and understanding through national events (i.e. webinars) and providing videos and multimedia content.	 CodeMark – product certification CodeMark Australia Ongoing management of CodeMark building product certification scheme. Most costs are offset by revenue.	 Website management Reducing cyber risks and improving user experience Reduce ICT risk and improve user experience when using the NCC, WaterMark product data base and other ABCB content.	 Governance and operations Transparency, integrity and corporate support Liaison within and across government agencies, coordinating strategic, policy and technical advice to Ministers and the Board, management of risk. Support for staff, administration, financial management and ICT support.